

Stanford Undergraduate Psychology Conference

CALL for ABSTRACTS

Submit Abstracts by

March 23rd, 2009

<http://www.stanfordconference.org/>

SUPC is a premier international conference for undergraduate psychology students. Our mission is to promote psychological science and the professional development of psychology students by facilitating professional networking and the sharing of high-quality psychology research.

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Greg Walton

Dr. Walton has been an assistant professor of Psychology at Stanford University since 2008. He received his Ph.D. in psychology in 2005 from Yale University. His research focuses on self identity, stereotypes, motivation and achievement, and social cognition. He has received numerous research awards, including the National Academy of Education/Spencer Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship and dissertation research awards from the American Psychological Association and Society of Psychological Study of Social Issues (SPSSI) in 2004 and 2006.

Conference Date: Saturday, May 16th, 2009

Location: Jordan Hall, Stanford University